

Dorinda Miller

Dorinda Miller has been employed at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign for the past 21 years as a Staff Clerk. She was instrumental in organizing the clerical workers at UIUC and for the past ten years, she has served as President of Local 3700 of the American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees (AFSCME), which represents more than 1,800 university employees. In addition, she is also the current Executive VP of AFSCME Council 31 (the umbrella organization for all AFSCME local unions in Illinois), serving as the top elected leader from AFSCME's public university sector.

Dorinda is currently an elected board member of the SURS Board of Trustees. She has served on the board of the Champaign County United Way and as the Labor Liaison Supervisor on the Red Cross National Disaster Response Team. In that capacity, she spent several weeks in New Orleans aiding in relief efforts in the wake of Hurricane Katrina. She also serves as President of the Champaign County Central Labor Council.
